

Chamber of Commerce of Caddo Mills Business Ethics Guidelines

As a valued member of the Chamber of Commerce of Caddo Mills, each business and individual is encouraged to adhere to the following guidelines to foster a positive, trustworthy, and growth-minded environment in our community.

Integrity

Members are encouraged to conduct business honestly and transparently, delivering products and services as promised and taking responsibility for actions that impact the community.

Respect

Members should treat all individuals—clients, employees, partners, and fellow Chamber members—with dignity and respect, fostering an inclusive, welcoming environment.

Accountability

Members are encouraged to comply with all applicable laws and regulations, uphold their commitments, and consider any conflicts of interest related to Chamber activities.

Fair Dealing

Members should compete fairly, avoiding unfair practices and providing clear, accurate information to all customers and business partners.

Community Impact

Members are encouraged to contribute positively to the community, supporting initiatives that promote economic growth, sustainability, and quality of life in Caddo Mills.

Confidentiality

Members should respect the confidentiality of sensitive information and use it solely for its intended purpose within the Chamber, safeguarding the privacy of individuals and businesses.

Transparency in Governance

Members are encouraged to participate transparently in Chamber events and decisions, supporting open communication and accountability within the organization.

These guidelines are intended to support our Chamber's commitment to a thriving, ethical, and community-oriented business environment. All members are encouraged to adhere to these principles as a part of their membership experience.
